

Servel Promotes Allen Apple To Industrial Relations Boss

ALLEN APPLE W9 HQF

Allen E. Apple, Newburgh, has been promoted to manager of industrial relations at Servel, Inc. Announcement of his promotion was made yesterday by F. W. Ortman, Jr., vice-president in charge of personnel.

For the past four years, Mr. Apple has been Servel labor relations manager. In his new job, he will continue to supervise labor relations, and will assume added responsibilities in the administration of the personnel division.

Born in Dayton

Mr. Apple was born and educated in Dayton, Ohio. He was assistant superintendent of Frigidaire's porcelain department in Dayton, and field construction engineer for the Ferro Enamel Co., Cleveland.

He came to Evansville in 1940 as porcelain department supervisor at Sunbeam Electric Co., and was later made assistant superintendent of the cabinet division. In 1942, he was put in charge of Sunbeam's labor relations. When the company became the Seeger Refrigerator Co. in 1945, Mr. Apple became personnel manager.

Youth Foundation Director

Mr. Apple is treasurer and director of the Newburgh Youth Foundation, and is active in the Newburgh volunteer fire department. He is a member of the Evansville Personnel Club, Evansville Foreman's Club and Tri-State Amateur Radio Society.

Mr. and Mrs. Apple have two daughters, Nancy Marie and Phyllis Jane.
